We have examined the financial records of Adjuncts United of Syracuse University for the period August 1st, 2009, through July 31st, 2010, and found them to be in good order. This examination was performed by a committee of members of Adjuncts United and was not necessarily conducted in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles.

During the course of our examination:

* Minutes had not been kept. We recommended that minutes be kept.

In all other respects the records are in order and well documented. This committee commends Adjuncts United Treasurer Kari Shaw for doing an exemplary job.

Based upon our examination, we consider the attached financial statements for the period August 1st, 2009 through July 31st, 2010 to be an accurate summary of transactions conducted during that period.

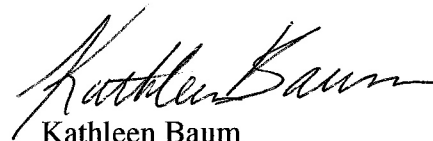

Sincerely,

Jeff Simmons
